SQUIRES

GARDEN CENTRES

A FAMILY BUSINESS CELEBRATING 85 YEARS

Squire's Garden Centres is an independent family-owned business with sixteen garden centres across the South East, eleven of which are located in the Surrey Hills. Squire's is celebrating their 85th anniversary this year. Chairman Sarah Squire tells us a bit about the changes in gardening and garden centres over the last 85 years.

HOW DID SQUIRE'S COME ABOUT?

My grandfather D.J. Squire (1905 – 2003) started our business. He was head gardener at the Police orphanage in Twickenham. When the orphanage closed in the mid-1930s he was made redundant. Unable to find alternative employment and with a young family to support he set up his own nursery and landscape gardening business.

My father Colin Squire, who is also 85 this year, developed the company into one of the first garden centre businesses in the UK when he opened Squire's in Twickenham in 1964.

HOW HAVE GARDEN CENTRES CHANGED?

The early garden centres were a far cry from today's businesses. They usually comprised converted greenhouses that were nowhere near the shopping environment customers expect today. From the 1980's, garden furniture and BBQs started to take off, and then cafes became an intrinsic part of the experience.

PROUD TO BE LOCAL

We aim to provide our local communities with superb quality plants and gardening products, as well as attractive ranges of garden furniture, BBQs and gifts. All our centres have a Café Bar which is a great place to meet friends and family.

HAVE PLANT TRENDS CHANGED OVER THE YEARS?

Plant trends come and go but many plants are as popular now as they were 85 years ago, and for good reason - because they do well in the garden and are reliable. Roses, Clematis and Lavenders are perennially popular, and there's increased interest in 'grow your own' fruit & veg and large statement plants.

Planting for wildlife, quite rightly, keeps on growing in popularity. Our gardens have become such an important resource for native wildlife with the urbanisation of the last hundred years or more.

PROUD TO BE BRITISH

We are proud that 80% of our plants are grown in Britain, many very locally indeed - this supports local producers and means that customers can choose from the freshest possible stock, which hasn't travelled far from nursery to garden centre.

WHY GARDENING IS GREAT

Gardening gets you out in the fresh air, is good exercise, connects you with nature and gives you space to think and clear your mind. It is so therapeutic to nurture plants and see them grow. I defy anyone not to feel relaxed and let the cares of the day slide away in the garden.

With people now spending more time at home, it is the perfect opportunity to make your garden, large or small, look its best. But it is not just about looks. It is a fact that gardening makes many people feel happier, healthier and more in tune with nature.
